DEBT VICTIM HAS SYMPATHY JUDGE HOWSON

Farmer Who Strives Under Load Is Unjust To Self and Family

CALGARY, March 22. — Mr. Justice W. R. Howson of the supreme court of Alberta expressed himself on the problem of farm debts here today.

"I would any farmer who strives to retain a farm loaded with debt which he cannot hope to pay even if the works like a slave until he is 80 years old is unjust to himself and family.

Mr. Justice Howson expressed the opinion during a hearing on the case of P. Fottouhi of Quesnel, B.C., who applied for a writ of habeas corpus to release him from a debt of $10,000 to $20,000, said Mr. Justice Howson.

SUFFERER FALLS IN 1929 FORTUNE purchased 800 acres of land from Allen, for purchase price of $70,000 to be paid off in instalments. He suffered a series of crop failures and could not meet his payments.

In 1935 the debt was reduced by the board of review under "the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement act" to $30,000. At that time in the district is valued at $12 an acre.

"Then your land is worth $3,000 or $4,000 and it is covered with debt of $30,000 or $40,000," said Mr. Justice Howson.

NEEDS ONE CROP "I would be the last one to put anybody off the land but don't you think you are doing yourself injustice by trying to stay on in the face of a debt three times the value of the land?" he asked.

"If I get a good crop this year I will be able to make a payment," said Fottouhi.

"That depends upon a providence," replied Mr. Justice Howson. "We may think we can control many things in this province, but we can't control providence."

The hearing was adjourned pending a conference between the interested parties in an effort to reach an agreement.

Youthful Member-Elect Will Represent Citizens in Parliament—R. C. Marshall Runs Second—Cleaveley Loss Deposit

East Edmonton seat in the House of Commons is still Social Credit.

In the voting which took place on Monday unofficial returns show Orvis A. Kennedy, Social Credit candidate, retained the seat for his party by a margin of 1,985 over his next nearest opponent, R. C. Marshall, who carried the Liberal banner.

Walter W. Cleaveley, candidate of the Conservative party, who was the third man on the ballot, lost his deposit, polling only 2450 votes of the 20,335 ballots cast. To save his deposit he required just double that number, 4900, or 71 per cent of the votes cast for the winning candidate.

Unofficial Returns Only Available

Official returns will not be available until Wednesday, but unofficial figures show the voting resulted as follows:

ORVIS A. KENNEDY, Social Credit, (elected), 9920.
ROBERT C. MARSHALL, Liberal, 7953.
WALTER W. CLEVELEY, Conservative, 2480.

The vote was one of the highest cast in East Edmonton in any election. Of 28,664 voters on the list some 20,335, or about 71 per cent of those entitled to vote, went to the polls.

1935 Election Vote Is Lower

In the general election of 1935, when the late Dr. W. S. Hall carried the seat for Social Credit, there were 24,946 names of voters on the list, and 12,122 exercised their right to vote. The official results for that election were:

HALL, Social Credit, (elected)	3721
MCLEOD, Liberal	4889
BOWEN, Conservative	2827
ROPER, C.C.F.	1726
GHOSLEY, Communist	671
GHOSLEY, Ind. Soc. Credit	378

An analysis of these figures shows that while 3718 names were added to the East Edmonton voters' list for the election just passed, some 4122 more voters went to the poll than was the case in the 1935 elections.

Conservative Party Loses Ground

The analysis also shows that while the Social Credit and Liberal candidates increased their votes, the Conservative party lost ground.

Taking the 1935 figures the Social Credit vote on that occasion polled 9920, and Monday rose to 9920, an increase of 3921 votes. Liberal votes increased from 4889 in 1935 to 7953 in Monday's poll, an increase of 3064 votes.

Conservative votes, however, dropped from 2827 in 1935, to 2480 in 1938, a loss of 347.

BIG GRIFT VOTE

The election on Monday added 2214 more votes to the Social Credit vote in 1935.

Conservative and C.C.F. who in 1935 polled 1726 and 671 votes respectively, lost ground in the election. The Social Credit candidate on Monday, the Conservative candidate on Monday, the C.C.F. candidate on Monday, the Communist candidate on Monday, the Ind. Soc. Credit candidate on Monday.

Results of the voting in East Edmonton are most encouraging when one considers that the Liberal candidate polled an increase over 1935 while the Social Credit candidate polled an increase over 1935. E. L. Gray, Alberta Liberal leader said on Tuesday.

"The by-election was a federal one and I took part in it. I am therefore interested in it only for its bearing on provincial affairs," he said. "One cannot fail to be impressed with the very apparent fact that Alberta voters are rapidly aligning themselves into two important groups, those adhering to Liberal principles and those supporting Social Credit. I have found the same thing true in many of the provincial constituencies which I have contacted in recent months."

Unwin Released From Jail Ottawa Direction

Double Celebration

JOSEPH H. UNWIN, M.L.A.

Still smiling, as he is shown in the above picture, taken as he was leaving the Edmonton court house for the provincial jail at Fort Saskatchewan to start the three months hard labor sentence imposed by Mr. Justice Ives following conviction on a defamatory libel charge, Joseph H. Unwin, M.L.A., Social Credit whip, was released on Monday night and arrived in Edmonton in time to join the victory parade organized to celebrate the Social Credit win in East Edmonton. He was given an ovation by Social Credit supporters.

When Powell was released from the Fort Saskatchewan jail, he was given a six-month sentence at the same charge. He was not released from the release order.

Ottawa dispatches explain that the action had been taken in the case of Powell as it is necessary for 50 per cent of the term imposed by the courts to be served before clemency is considered.

When Powell has served three months of his six-month sentence he may be given the same clemency as Unwin, although his case is complicated by the degradation order. It is possible the degradation order may be rescinded.

TELEGRAPHIC ORDER
The Dominion government announced at 4 p.m., Edmonton time, Monday, that it had telegraphed instructions to Warden McLean at Fort Saskatchewan jail, that the Governor General had authorized immediate release of Joseph Unwin.

Acting on these instructions, the warden freed Unwin, who was met at the jail by a number of Social Credit members, who drove out from the city in a motorcade to celebrate the release of Unwin.

Announcement of the Social Credit M.L.A.'s release order was made at 4 p.m., Edmonton time.

Getting Well

M.L.A. Out Of Prison As Polls Close

OTTAWA, March 22.—The case of G. F. Powell, English-Social Credit adviser in the Alberta government now serving a six-month term in jail for publishing a defamatory libel, will be considered on its merits for parole, Hon. Justice Lapointe, minister of justice, told the House of Commons today.

Joseph Unwin, Social Credit M.L.A. for Edmonton, was released from Fort Saskatchewan jail about 11 p.m. Monday by order of the Governor-General. Unwin had served one-half of the three-month term imposed after he had been found guilty of defamatory libel.

The time of the release coincided with the closing of the polls in the East Edmonton federal election, and later in the evening Mr. Unwin celebrated his return to Edmonton in the victory parade staged by Social Credit to mark the election of Orvis A. Kennedy to the East Edmonton seat.

Looking very happy to be up and about again, in Queen Alexandra's hospital, where he is recovering from a convalescence in the French Riviera.

Asked regarding a persistent rumor in respect to the likelihood of an early election, the Premier said:

"At the present time an election is the furthest thing from my mind. Yesterday's result would convince me that the people are not demanding an election."

"If it becomes necessary for me to select the political tactics of springing an election in order to gain an advantage, I would be working against the great principle of democracy."

COMMENTS ON ELECTION
When the time of an election comes, it will have no desire to remain in office if the people no longer desire to support our policies."

Asked to comment on the East Edmonton by-election, and circumstances surrounding same, the Premier said:

"The people of Alberta have spoken through the electors of East Edmonton. The result was a vindication of their determination that in any true democracy the will of the people must prevail."

"There were many other laws involved in this election. One of these was the clear issue as to the people's desire for democracy over that of financial reaction."

PEOPLE SPEAK
"The people also have said what they think of all this disavowal and withdrawing of assent to the government's legislation. They have certainly spoken in no uncertain way as to their attitude regarding the Ottawa-protected bank crisis."

"The election was not a purely local affair. It was one of the most important by-elections which has been fought in Canada for many years. The old line political parties were determined to make it a purely local affair, but the people of Alberta no longer had any confidence in the policy of the political parties."

"I feel that they received their answer and I would expect that the Prime Minister of Canada would therefore fulfill his election promise of hands off local affairs."

BRITAIN MAY NOT GIVE AID TO CZECH CAUSE

LONDON, March 22.—The cabinet this morning began two-day consideration of foreign policy, and a statement which Prime Minister Chamberlain is to make in the House of Commons tomorrow.

Over the weekend Mr. Chamberlain has been in close contact with the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, and the accepted procedure the Dominion cannot be committed in any way without government without definite action.

It is not considered likely, however, the Prime Minister will give a direct pledge to Czechoslovakia.

Albera Liquor Board Is Model

REGINA, March 22.—More detailed account of liquor board legislation, modeled along the lines of the recent statement of the Alberta Liquor board which is published in the Regina Standard, was given in the legislature, was suggested by the public accounts committee of the Saskatchewan legislative assembly in its report last night to the provincial legislature.

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., March 22.—Prince Rupert residents reported today they had felt a "distinct earthquake shock of several seconds duration" at about 7:30 a.m. (P.S.T.). They said houses were shaken and furniture rattled. No serious damage was reported.

Mr. Markham brought his family back to Toronto. Then there was no mob law and Toronto accepted its former mayor as an earnest repentant child come home. A year after his return he was back in the assembly as M.L.A. for Haldimand, defeating George Brown, and playing a lone hand for several years, with his influence as a leader gone.

Hi Y club members were hosts a delightful father and son banquet held in the Y.M.C.A. recently when guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Reginald T. Rose, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A. in Lethbridge.

"To create, maintain and extend through the school and community high standards of Christian character" motto of the HI Y club, was the subject on which Mr. Ross spoke so eloquently.

Toast to the King was proposed by Mr. Ralph Hollingsworth. Mr. Craig Moon proposed the toast to the ladies, to which Mrs. C. D. Gainer replied. Toast to the Y. M. C. A. proposed by Mr. Ralph Loder was replied to by Mr. V. A. Porter while C. W. Deane replied to the toast to the fathers, proposed by Mr. Douglas Deane.

Mr. Jack Williams entertained guests with a vocal number accompanied on the piano by Mr. Gordon Gainer and a clever monologue was given by Mr. George Coles. Mr. H. Betts led the gathering in a sing-along while Mr. Gordon Milne played the piano accompaniment.

United States Rejects Hepburn Power and Water Diversion Plans

BIG WATERWAY PLAN IS MAIN U.S. INTEREST

United States Pronounces Tabled In House Of Commons Monday

CAN. PRESS TEL. TORONTO, March 22.—The United States has rejected the dual project of Premier Hepburn of Ontario of diverting water from Long Lake to Lake Superior and exporting surplus electrical energy to New York consumers, an international agreement on the subject of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterways scheme.

Providing a substantial development in power debate now in progress in the House of Commons here in the recent controversy between the Ontario and Dominion governments over water diversion. Prime Minister Mackenzie King, just before adjourning last night, tabled the United States pronouncement on these two questions.

POWER TO PROCEED

While rejecting the proposal for a separate agreement on diversion and electrical energy, the United States would prohibit import of power from Canada as proposed by the Ontario Government. The United States communications said that country was "ready and eager" to proceed with negotiating for a comprehensive Great Lakes-St. Lawrence treaty.

It was stated in general statements along the lines at present envisaged by the United States Government might provide for the export of power from Canada for a number of years while development of power resources on both sides of the river was in progress to provide cheap power which "in the case of the United States would be a substitute for the power exported by Canada when such exports are withheld."

PROHIBIT IMPORT

The correspondence included a letter from State Secretary, Lord containing rejection of the water diversion project as a separate agreement and a statement in a memo setting forth the government's view on power import with reference to President Roosevelt would prohibit such import from Canada under conditions proposed.

Whole Thing Off

Hepburn States

ST. THOMAS, Ont., March 22.—The whole thing is off," Premier Hepburn said last night, commenting upon the announcement in Ottawa that the United States had rejected Ontario's proposals to divert water from Long Lake to Lake Superior and to export surplus power to the United States under the project form part of an international agreement on the St. Lawrence waterway scheme.

Ontario will not consent to the St. Lawrence scheme, the premier said.

Driver Blameless

In Wife's Death

TROCHU, March 22.—At the inquest into the death of Mrs. Graham, the driver, was exonerated of any carelessness or negligence. It was found that she died of shock, bruise and exposure. The jury added a rider that there were no signs of anyone approaching the narrow, dangerous bridge and water was running from a gutter across the surface of the bridge making the road dangerous.

Mrs. Graham died following a motor accident Saturday night on the highway four miles south of Trochu, where she and her husband were returning to their home in Calgary from Stettin. The body is being sent to Vancouver for burial.

ELEPHANTS DO NOT SMELL THEIR NOSES THROUGH

Although an elephant will raise its trunk into the air when danger approaches, it does not smell through that trunk or nose at all. Elephant smells through its mouth, and the raised trunk is merely to bring the air into the trunk of the mouth for smelling. An old fact about elephants is that they can remain standing while asleep or even dead. Their joints remain locked. A false belief about elephants says that they cannot swim. They have been known to remain afloat several hours to water despite their great size and weight.

CLAUDETTE'S HAND SHOWS MUCH GRACE

CALGARY, March 22.—Judgment in the action challenging the right of the Alberta government to tax income spent and derived from sources outside the province was withheld by Mr. Justice A. F. Ewing in the Supreme Court here Monday.

Premier Albertas, as attorney-general, and the superintendent of revenue tax, were the defendants. No evidence was heard, the hearing before Mr. Justice Ewing being confined to arguments of counsel.

CALGARY NEW RELIEF SCALE IS UNALTERED

Reductions To Be Imposed and Will Be Effective April 1

CALGARY, March 22.—Calgary's new reduced unemployment relief scale will be in effect April 1. The city council last night adopted the recommendations of the unemployment relief committee and city commissioners for the new scale which will impose reductions ranging from 10 to 11 per cent. The council declined to consider the proposals of the Calgary unemployed union, representing the 11,000 relief recipients. The new scale is postponed. Representatives of the jobless urged the council to hold out negotiations could be made to the federal and provincial authorities.

RECIPIENTS ATTEND

Many of the relief recipients attended the council meeting but there was no demonstration. Police officers were stationed in the city hall corridors during the meeting. Council voted eight to four in favor of the new scale. Mayor Andrew Davidson and the seven City Government Taxpayers' Association members supported the recommendations of the city unemployment committee, and the three Social Credit and the one Labor aldermen voted against them.

500 FAMILIES

More than 5,000 families are on relief rolls in Calgary. The reduction range from $10 to $11 a week for a man and wife and $8 for a man, wife and eight children. The new scale will save the city $100,000 a month compared with the present rate of $75,000. The new scale will save a saving of approximately $600,000 annually for the city.

A recommendation that all children

under the age of 15 years be treated as adults in so far as the new scale was concerned was referred to the unemployment relief committee for consideration.

Mystery Is Eye-dea

One started eye and a little blonde hair were all that Mrs. Mae (Mamie) Capone, wife of the former Chicago gang king, would exhibit after visiting husband Al in federal prison on Alcatraz Island. One of the most mysterious figures in Capone's life, she had never been in the news until Capone bought a pretentious home in Miami, Fla. in 1933. The photo above was taken at a gasoline station after visiting Capone twice in two days. She was accompanied by reporters who had been told that her husband, who will be eligible for parole next year, has lost his mind.

REDUCTION IN CITY BUDGET IS PROPOSED

proportion for "extra" be cancelled. As a substitute, he urged that a common contingency fund be operated to take care of emergency expenditures.

As council so far has only tentatively approved estimates placed before aldermen, no action has yet been taken on Ald. Cameron's proposal.

Deputy Mayor Ald. J. T. McCreedy reported this matter was under consideration by city commissioners. He suggested a four or five per cent rebate for the city's emergency fund out of the 10 per cent reduction.

BUDGET INCOMPLETE

Estimates now under consideration by council embrace only estimated revenue and expenditures for city departments. They do not include estimates for the two school boards, library board, taxes on property forfeited to the city, bank interest and exchange and debenture redemption charges.

The complete budget will be brought down by the end of this month, it is expected.

At its meeting Monday council

tentatively approved estimated expenditures of $17,150 for police and pound departments, as compared to an actual operating cost of $17,000 last year. Revenue of $7,800, consisting of pound fees, court fees and fines and traffic taxes, is estimated for 1938. Actual revenue last year was $14,100.

Explaining the question of revenue

Mr. McCreedy said that the bill would provide for the collection of revenue from the use of the railways.

SCHOOL, FARM AT OLDS WILL BE SEPARATED

Complete Severance For Administration Purposes Announced

Complete severance for administrative purposes of the Olds school of Agriculture and the farm attached thereto, was announced in the legislature on Monday by Hon. D. R. Mullen, minister of agriculture, after discussion of his departmental estimates.

The minister also announced that Principal Murray was carrying on as head of the school and that Walter Ross had been appointed manager of the farm.

Mr. Ross has been carrying on as head of the farm, under Principal Murray, for the last two years, prior to which time he was manager of the Oliver farm.

CLOSE QUESTIONING

The minister's announcement came while he was under close questioning by his supporters in a discussion of the estimates.

While there was criticism of some and discussion over nearly all, none of the terms were stricken from the estimates.

Entire estimates for the department were not completed, but will be taken up again.

A strange feature of the discussion was that when the minister was subjected to criticism, twice he was defended by his predecessor as minister of agriculture, W. N. Chant, now an Independent and member of the house of commons.

ANSWERS PROMISED

Several times the minister did not have data at hand with which to answer questions and promised to bring down the answers later.

One point was addressed to him by Mrs. Edith Rogers, S. C. Ponaka, who asked the minister whether the cost of grain at the Olds farm.

James Hartley, S. C. Macleod, William King, S. C. Cochrane, L. M. McCune, S. C. Gleichen and A. V. Bourcier, S. C. La. Ste. Anne and E. L. Gray, Alberta Liberal leader, were among those taking part in the discussion.

Members questioned every vote

in which an increase was shown over last year's estimates.

ITEM DISCUSSED

An item of $2,400 for a fur farm instructor salary drew discussion. The minister said that the department had established the farm and that breeders had loaned stock.

A question by Mr. Bourcier was whether any great loss would ensue if the house decided altogether the votes for the agricultural school at Olds and Vermilion.

Mr. Chant rose in his place to reply. Mr. Bourcier recalled that he had asked the Minister regarding the matter and Mr. Chant replied that he had every night to discuss the subject as a member of the house.

BLOW TO PROVINCE

He contended that the province was being deprived of an opportunity for experimental work and for instructing the young farm people.

Charles Holder, S. C. St. Albert, who asked whether the provincial farms could pay for themselves instead of being provided for in the estimates. The minister replied that he would reply to that next year when the farms would show a year's operation.

Mr. Hartley wanted to know what acreage there was in the two farms and when the minister replied that each had about 320 acres. Mr. Hartley asked why $14,000 should be necessary for hired help in setting the land.

He declared that any farm could make money if it had appropriate facilities like this coming to it, he said.

SMALL PLOTS

Mr. Chant once more came to the aid of the provincial farms, declaring that provincial farms must be compared with an ordinary farm because of the small plots they operated for experimentation purposes.

He claimed the provision of seed and feed was necessary because farms must buy new types of seed and feed for testing purposes and, therefore, could not produce their own.
